To the marvellous Vatpak team

I just wanted to send you a HUGE THANK YOU for all your help.

We feel so confident in your ability and are so grateful for your kindness and co-operation.

You have always proved yourselves to be professional and approachable, your patience and 'can do' attitude is a credit to your company leadership and staff.

We know we have thrown things at you sometimes with little notice and it has always been met with understanding and your willingness to help. You have got us out of more than a couple of binds.

It is such a delight to work with you all – and I just wanted to you to know that you are very much appreciated, and I look forward to our partnership continuing long into the future.

Kind regards,
